

COUNTING IN UGANDA

Lee San Lim

Why Kasiisi Project in Uganda?

- Why not?
- Rural location
- (and it's “next” to Tanzania!)

Why Kasiisi Project in Uganda?

- Lodging was available within close proximity of the office

The barter trade: Accounting skills for a life experience

Provided:

- Review of accounting procedures
- Implement tighter controls – forms, macro
- Bank reconciliation
- Petty cash account
- Documentation of accounting procedures

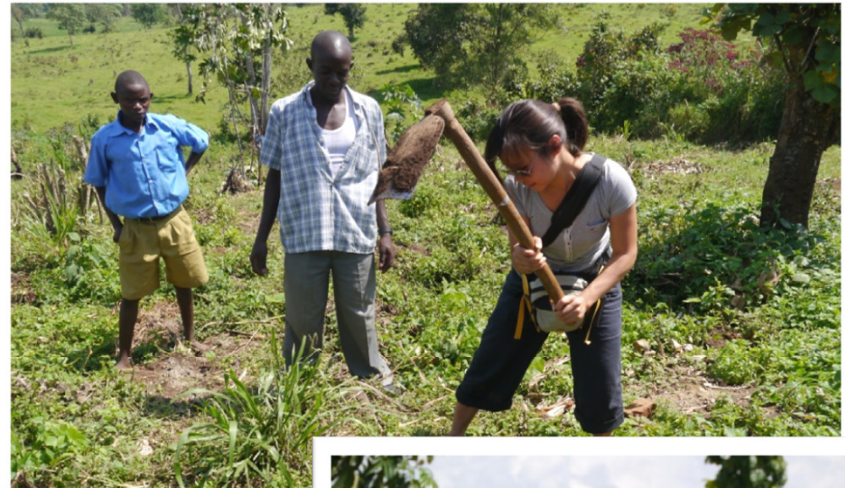

Received:

- Collecting eggs
- Selling eggs to local shops
- Dealing with local suppliers
- Dealing with banks
- Digging and mulching
- Enhanced driving skills

The egg trade

Farm days

A typical day at Kasiisi

- Natural alarm clock

A typical day at Kasiisi (2)

- Shower & breakfast

A typical day at Kasiisi (3)

Commute to work

Typical day at Kasiisi (3)

Day in the office

Day out in town – sell eggs, requisition forms, banking etc

Dinner

Read/write

Other activities

School band performances

Girls Peer-Ed weekend

Students' exhibitions

Mural painting

AIDS awareness troupe

Pastime activities

Gardening

Walks/treks

Trips to town

Gorilla trekking

Things to consider...

- Electricity may not be consistently available
- Internet/wi-fi access may be intermittent
- Be aware of current situation eg political stability, virus outbreaks etc
- Go with an open mind and a sense of adventure
- Enjoy the different culture and pace

...and have the experience of a lifetime!