

Tailored

Assignment length	You choose from 2 weeks to 12 months
Assignment options	Up to 250 live partner organisations
Charity Partner size	Typically independent community based organisations
Locations	You choose from more than 50 countries ³
Travel Dates	At a time convenient for you
The Work	Part of a long-term programme training local staff one to one. Continuing the work of a previous volunteer and handing over to another at a later date.
Selection process	AfiD will provide up to 3 options closely matching your personal preferences, skills and experience.
Costs	The volunteer will ordinarily cover all costs associated with the assignment. In many cases the partner is able to cover some costs such as accommodation, airport pickup, meals, visas and vaccinations.
Accommodation	A guest house or homestay ⁵ with local staff
AfiD Fee	£595 or £545 (Non-European Residents)
Advantages	Choice, the chance to personalise your experience and a work environment close to the beneficiaries.

¹ Shorter assignments are occasionally available. Check website listings.

² Structured assignments are listed in full. Tailored listings are only a sample.

³ Subject to availability at our partner organisations.

Structured

Typically from 8 weeks ¹ up to 12 months. The minimum required commitment will be provided by the charity.
On average 5 to 12 live assignment options. Check website listings ²
The overseas offices of larger international charities
All current options are listed in full on the website
Fixed as listed on the website; ideally within the next 2 months
Addressing urgent issues identified by the charity. Terms of reference will be provided by the charity which is likely to include the training of local staff. It is unlikely that another volunteer will continue your work.
We will arrange a convenient time for an interview with the charity ⁴ . A decision will be made immediately.
Flights and accommodation costs will always be covered by the charity. In some cases other associated costs will be covered and an allowance provided. Check website listings for the expenses covered on each assignment.
Guest house or rented accommodation organised by the charity.
£995 or £945 (Non-European Residents)
Some financial assistance and greater role responsibility with clear expected assignment deliverables. ⁶

⁴ Latin American assignments are likely to require fluent Spanish skills.

⁵ Homestays are likely to be on African and Latin American assignments only.

⁶ An appropriate assignment may not be available.